City of Sarasota Picks Contractor for New Athletic Field

The City of Sarasota (sarasotagov.org) has awarded Jon F. Swift Construction (jonfswiftinc.com) a contract for the construction of the new Robert L. Taylor Community Complex athletic field. The project includes the conversion of the current field into an artificial multipurpose turf field with new lighting, fencing, irrigation and parking. The field is the first of its kind in the City of Sarasota and Sarasota County, and will allow children and adults to practice and play in sports leagues and tournaments both in the daytime and at night under lights. Construction will begin this spring.
